BUDAPEST &
PRAGUE
12 – 24 August 2019
Prague and Budapest are two of the most beautiful and most visited cities in Europe

And not only are they postcard-beautiful, they also have world class golf courses, endless sightseeing, world-renowned breweries and superb restaurants.

We have packaged all of this, along with guided sightseeing and fun excursions to make our 2019 Budapest – Prague tours never-to-be forgotten experiences.

And with their own currencies, both countries offer real value for money.

We recommend that you view this document at 100% for best picture quality

This is what you can look forward to when you board the plane in August:

Monday 12 August

Assemble mid-morning at Johannesburg International before we depart for Budapest.

(Flights from Cape Town and Durban also available)

Tuesday 13 August

On arrival at Budapest Airport, we are transferred by air-conditioned coach to our hotel, the 4-star Mercure Budapest City Centre Hotel. Having just completed a full refurbishment and situated on the restaurant lined main pedestrian mall, our hotel for the next 5 nights is the perfect choice in Budapest.
Wednesday 14 August
A guided half-day coach tour of Budapest gets the tour underway and is the perfect way to learn about one of the world’s most fascinating cities. Along the way, our local guide will introduce the group to Heroes Square (and explain how Hungary survived Nazi and Communist to become the modern country it is today). Other highlights of the day include visiting the sightseeing viewpoints above the river, the Chain bridge, the poignant “shoe” memorial beside the river, the houses of parliament, the healing waters of the Gellert Spa baths and St Stephens Basilica.

Friday 16 August

Our first round of golf is at the impressive and stately Pannonia Golf Club, home to many local and regional tournaments. Winding through the indigenous forests of the region, Pannonia GC is a perfect example of Hungarian golf and friendly nature and boasts one of the homeliest clubhouses in Europe.

While the golfers are taking up the challenge of golf in Budapest, the non-golfers have the opportunity to explore the attractions and sights of the city... with the impressive city centre and its endless shopping and café lifestyle ensuring a busy day for all.

And for those looking for some pampering a therapeutic hot spring, the GELLERT SPA is just across the river from our hotel.
Saturday 17 August

Today has been kept free to allow everyone to catch up and spend the day the way they want... ticking off the ‘To Do’s’ not yet done, playing an optional round of golf, shopping for local bargains, strolling along the Danube, revisiting some of the local attractions or just simply “relaxing” Budapest style at some its many sidewalk cafes and restaurants.
Sunday 18 August
This morning we check out of our hotel and transfer to Prague….. our base for the next five nights.

The centrally located and recently refurbished Hilton Old Town is the perfect choice for easy sightseeing, shopping and access to transport.

The Old Town of Prague and its famed Astronomical Clock
Monday 19 August
In keeping with the historical nature of Prague, we have rented a fleet of vintage cars for our orientation of the beautiful city. English speaking driver-guides will drive us in procession through the city, pointing out highlights and explaining the rich culture which is around every corner.

The enchanting drive through Prague will end at the entrance to the Prague Castle, where our local guides will await us before a tour of Prague’s Number 1 tourist attraction.
Tuesday 20 August
Our first golf in the Czech Republic is at the scenic Albatross Golf Club, where golf is perfectly blended with nature and which hosts the Czech Masters.... A European Tour Event.

The non-golfers will be glad to have time this morning to stroll the Old Town and soak in the atmosphere of this spectacular city.
Wednesday 21 August

Today is a big day. Golf this morning is at the GREENSGATE Golf Club, host to the Czech Ladies European Tour event and one of Europe’s most photogenic courses as it winds around the surrounding hills and through the mixed forests of the region.

While the golfers are out on the course, the non-golfers will enjoy their outing to the beautiful nearby town of Pilsen, where they will have the chance to explore the ancient town and savour the local delicacies.

After the day’s golf, we head to the nearby PILSENER URQUELL brewery for a visit and a tasting of their famous brew.
